Dear Mr. Casey:

Thank you for taking the time from your buuy schedule to address the 64th National Convention of The American Legion. It was a pleasure having you with us in Chicago.

Your remarks were of great interest to our delegates. We share your concern at the vast increase in Soviet influence among the nations of the world in the past ten years, the continued accessibility of information to foreign intelligence agencies and the increased acts of terrorism both in this country and abroad.

The American Legion's agreement with your remarks is evidenced by the actions of our National Convention. Resolutions have been adopted in support of U. S. intelligence agencies, commending the establishment of the Senate Subcommittee on Security and Terrorism and reaffirming our support of the CIA and FBI.

Thank you again, and my very best wishes.

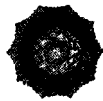

Sincerely,

Jack W. Flynt
